Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136 (a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If the period for reply specified above is less than thirty (30) days, a reply within the statutory minimum of thirty (30) days will be considered timely.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133).
- Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

DETAILED ACTION

1. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

2. Claims 1-21 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Flamme et al.
'340.

The patent to Flamme et al discloses pair of GPS receivers 176 and 178 both of which are capable of calculating the speed of the vehicle. They provide data to data processing unit 156 as does ground speed sensor 210 which could be radar or a magnetic wheel speed sensor that provides pulses which the frequency of are indicative of the speed, as admitted by the applicant in the disclosure. The unit 156 controls the rate of delivery of seeds or chemicals on trailed implement 40. The reference lacks the use of the speed calculated by the GPS unit to control delivery rate. This would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time of the invention as the reference discloses that radar or magnetic wheel speed sensors may be used to calculate speed and it already has a GPS unit capable of calculating speed, so one of ordinary skill in the art would use this speed as another alternative and convert it into pulses to be usable with the wheel speed sensor technology in order to provide another alternative for speed measurement.

3. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.

The applicant has admitted that it is old and well known to use GPS systems to determine speed. The examiner contends that it would have been obvious to use this technology, as modified in the above application of the prior art. Just because the prior art patent did not disclose such an embodiment, specifically, does not prevent one of ordinary skill in the art from modifying the invention as a whole under 35 U.S.C. 103.

4. Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to R. Camby whose telephone number is (703) 308-2088.
